

Weddings at Congham Hall...

Congratulations on your engagement and thank you for considering Congham Hall, a unique venue for your special day.

With a highly experienced team at the helm and a dedicated wedding planner to guide you through every detail and decision you need to make, we will make your day as perfect as you could imagine. Bringing all the elements together, it is our job to make sure you take away the memories to last you a lifetime.

Ceremonies

Congham Hall is licensed for Civil Weddings in our Restaurant and Writing Room. You will need to contact the registrar directly to see that they are available on the day you are considering for your wedding and they will charge you a separate fee for conducting the ceremony itself. Wedding ceremonies can be conducted on any day of the week. For numbers over 20 guests, we ask that your wedding ceremony takes place from midday and we politely request a finishing time of 5.30pm.

Weddings

Within the hotel, the beautifully light and airy Restaurant at Congham Hall, with its two glass skylights, has large French windows leading directly onto the terrace and beyond it, the lawns and parkland and seats up to a hundred guests. Exclusive use of the Restaurant is available throughout the year from 12.00 noon until 5.30pm. If you wish to have an evening reception, this would need to take place at an alternative venue as Congham does not offer evening receptions.

For smaller weddings, The Writing Room situated on the quietest corner of the house, is decorated in dark purple and has open views of the lawns and parkland. Exclusive use of the Writing Room is available throughout the year from 10.00am until 11.00pm

Menus

Please find below our suggested menus. For parties of ten or more we do insist on serving a set menu as we prepare and cook all of our dishes to order from fresh. Alternatively, you are very welcome to offer your guests a choice (with a maximum of two dishes for each course) and a pre-order and a seating plan will be required in advance. We are of course more than happy to cater for any special dietary needs. Once you have chosen your menu, why not add in additional courses? Below lists suggestions you may wish to consider.
